IT IS FURTHER ORDERED GRANTING in part the request to modify the parenting caregiver of choice provision. It shall now provide that each party will be entitled to parenting time, or physical custody as the case may be, while the other party is outside the home for more than four hours. The provision shall not apply if there is a grandparent, spouse, uncle or aunt supervising the children at that parent's residence. If a parent is going to be outside the home for more than four hours and not have a grandparent, spouse, uncle or aunt in the home, then he or she can give the other party 48 hours notice so that he or she may exercise their right to parenting time under this provision.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parents shall not discuss this litigation with Caleb or show Caleb any pleadings or minute entries.

LET THE RECORD REFLECT that the parties agree to that each shall bear his or her own attorney's fees and costs.
